TRADE POLICIES

- All returns must be made at customer's expense within 18 months from sale.
- Books must be received in resalable condition and currently in print by the publisher.
- No returns will be accepted for books received damaged. Examples of damaged books include: bent corner or spine, bent, crumpled or dirty pages; ink marks and cut marks; glue residue; store-specific stickers, price stickers and security devices; water damage; and other extreme damage.
- Books should be packaged horizontally in the box, with sufficient packing material to prevent damage during return shipping.
- Paperwork listing the quantity of books being returned and the reason for return, along with original invoice information, must be included with all return shipments.
- Damaged books received from the publisher must be reported within 14 days of receipt to be eligible for replacement. All other discrepancies in shipments received by the customer must also be reported within 14 days.
- Refunds for returns accepted according to these policies will be paid on net 30 terms.
